“ Ann was my Mother-In-Law so you might think we wouldn't be friends but we were. She shared so much of her life with me that we were like girlfriends. We could laugh and talk for hours and she was funny without realizing she was being funny. She remained very much like a 14 year old girl from Ireland. About ten years ago we were talking about death, and she said "I don't care what happens to me, I just hope I fly over Ireland on my way to Heaven!" And I believe that's exactly what she did! I loved her and I will miss her very much!
