“ You will be missed, we met years ago off the computer, we hung out all the time back then had laughs together. Then you introduced me to your cousin where we dated for awhile. Then you moved and we lost touch but we ran into each other once in awhile and always said hi. When you were in the hospital this past time I always stopped and seen your mom to ask how you were doing. You might be gone but never will be forgotten rest in peace ashley!
