Our thoughts and prayers are with you in the loss of your mother. Barbara was a wonderful nurse and remember her many years ago. Her mother cleaned house for me for many years and was so special to us. Many blessings to you and your family, along with many prayers, Gene and Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.

To the family..I had no idea that your Mom had passed. I lived just down the street from her for years...it wasn't until I rode by and saw the auction sign and decided to look this up. Terry I went to school with you...and knew your Mom and Mr George it seems my whole life. I send my deepest sympathy as I know, there is no loss to compare to the loss of our dear sweet Mother.

“ Mom, I so miss you! My heart is forever broken now that God has called you home! I want everyone to know what a beautiful, wonderful, thoughtful person you were. I will miss our every day emails, our phone conversations and weekend visits. This was the most difficult Mother's Day I have ever experienced. You are forever in my heart . I will miss you and think of you everyday for the rest of my life. When they say that God takes the best, God sure did get the best when he chose to call you home!!!!
I love you!!!!
Your daughter, Terry!!!
