“ Betty and I talked on the phone occasionally. She liked to reminisce about the old times growing up with my mom, Dorotha Lee Collison. She missed her family and friends that went before her. I can imagine her happiness being with them all now. She was so sweet, and I'll miss talking with her. ❤️

“ So so sorry for your loss. Miss Betty and my mother (Eva Dixon) were the best of friends since the 1st grade . What a treasure. They shared a lifetime of memories and, would talk Every Day on the phone about what was happening in Greensboro, their families and the good old days. Isn't bittersweet that it's only been 42 days since they last talked? They truly were besties for life! Thoughts and prayers are with all of you
