“ You will be missed. Your wonderful smile & cheerful soul. One of my fondest memories is the trip to the Washington Monument; You, Uncle Tommy & I walked all the steps up . . and then all the way down ! And the Reunion attended when we went to Powell (Pal) Valley ! We will miss you. . . you are in His hands now, safe and sound for eternity.

Thank you for all the love you poured over our children with Darin Sr. They are a piece of you and for that I am thankful. Your ever loving support will always be remembered. Thank you for allowing me to remain a family member. I will always have a piece of you in my heart. Much love to you. My condolences to Darin, Mark, Tom and all the grand kids. Please Lord let them have peace. All my love; Barbara Vogt (Chandler)

“ On one of my many "girls weekend" with Aunt Betty, I captured this moment of her and her sweet Simon cuddled up on the couch napping. I don't know who loved who more. Simon - Her or Her - Simon. Either way ... You could just see and feel the mutual adoration.
