“ I got to know Bruce a little when I would go by to see him after he moved into Pam's old house. My best memories were taking him to the Waffle House in Camden. He would order the same thing every time (waffles and chili). I will remember me trying to get him to try something else on the menu but that simply was not going to happen. If you know Bruce you know I speak the truth!!! Bruce wanted no part of the aging process, he just wanted to be able to hunt, fish and drive to Florida like he had done for so many years. I enjoyed his stories of times gone by!!! Though his memory was failing him for every day tasks he had no problem recalling stories about his wife who he said he missed everyday day of his life. God's speed Bruce, I am so glad I got to know you better
