“ *To the Family,
The last time I saw Rome was a few years ago, and we laughed and had a good talk about our times as children out on Union Road. Rome, I knew you had medical problems and I wanted to keep in touch, but my health got the best of me and I was in and out of the hospital myself.
It's funny how life gets in the way. We plan on doing one thing and life comes along and eventually what you had planned just cannot be done.
I will miss knowing that you are around. Sleep in peace cousin.
