“ I remember Jean's sweet personality, a hard diligent worker who would find time to ask you how you are doing. She always shared a smile and great advice, when I first started at AACC she would check on me all the time to make sure I was ok...Thank you Jean for your unselfish kindness I will never forget you!

“ The world and the College has lost a real mediator of God's love with Mrs. Sears' death. Back during my time as an AACC administrator, I'd circle through all the campus buildings a couple of times each week--and always meet Mrs. Sears and be blessed by her warm smile. Her love enriched us all and remains with us all. God rest and bless a truly good woman.
