“ We have such fond memories of our dear friend, Charleen. We shared so many happy times over the past 50+ years: crabbing at Point Lookout when our children were young, whitewater rafting, weekends at our shore home, vacations in Europe, Myrtle Beach, New England, to name a few. Charleen was always fun to be with and always ready for the next adventure. "Mother Bluebird," as Rundle often called her, will be missed, but memories of her will forever be in our hearts.

“ While Jim and I only had the extreme pleasure of knowing Don and Charleen three plus years, we have become great friends and neighbors. Charleen was a very loving, nice, kind, wonderful and funny lady whom we will miss very much! Rest In Peace our dear friend! Thoughts and Prayers 🙏
