“ I remember all of us, Sharon, Chuckie and Augie (before Vincent was born) were playing up in the hayloft. Mike was practicing his bow and arrow at me (as usual) while I was sitting on a bale of hay. Chuckie went to go down the ladder and fell to the floor below. Our farmhouse only had a pump on the side porch and so my mother cleaned him up at the pump while I pumped the water. He did have to have several stitches but came through like a trooper.
