

Charles Wilbur Hill

October 25, 1959 - May 22, 2023

Charles Wilbur Hill of Denton passed away on May 22, 2023. He was 63. Born on October 25, 1959, in Savannah, Georgia, he was the son of the late Paul Mitchell and Lois Ramsey Hill. At the age of 16, Charles went to work for Salisbury Brothers for 30 years. He enjoyed painting and watching Nascar. Charles was a lead guitar player and was in several bands including Phaze, The Free Wheelers Express, JR & The Midnight Express, and Sweetwater. He started playing piano in the past few years. He loved flying and everything about Airplanes.

Charles is survived by his children, Jason Hill and wife Kimberly of Preston, Maryland, Ashley Breen and husband Kevin of Homestead, Florida, and Chaisity Bischoff and husband Billy of Harrah, Oklahoma; sisters, Anne Young and Sharon Cole; and 13 grandchildren.

He was predeceased by his daughter, Toni Hill; brothers, Jr. Hill and Eddie Hill; sister, Susie Dunning; and grandson, Austin Heckrotte.

A visitation will be held on Monday, June 5, 2023, from 1-2 pm at Fleegle and Helfenbein Funeral Home in Greensboro, Maryland. A service will start afterward at 2 pm. Burial will follow in Greensboro Cemetery.

“ My husband Jim and I shared some really great times with Charlie. Jim was a part of the band Free Wheelers Express and enjoyed working with Charlie. He was always full of life and funny. He had a very unique style of playing guitar and everyone enjoyed hearing him play. He will definitely be remembered and missed by many people including us. Prayers to the family and God Bless.
