“ Our Deepest Sympathy to Miss Betty and to all the Family. We were so saddened today when we returned home to find the news from Earl B., regarding Charlie. We all enjoyed our years of working with Charlie at the Baltimore Sunpapers. He was one of the guys who "wore a white hat". Enoyed his humor, too. RIP, Charlie. God Bless You and Your Family. Sinerely,

“ Charlie, your union brothers and sisters will miss you. Charlie and I go back to the early 50's at Catonsville High School. Years later in 1968 we met again as printers at the Baltimore Sun and worked together to our retirements in the late 90's. We all know of his love for hunting with his dogs, coaching girls softball teams with his daughters and most of all his wife Miss Betty. The phone would ring every night on the wall in the composing room, someone would answer and yell "Butter its Miss Betty". He loved his wife and family. I am sure GOD has a special place for Charlie to run his dogs and chase rabbits. Rest in peace, Butter.
