“ Aunt Sis, Jen, Tracy, and family,

Just wanted to extend to you guys our deepest sympathy on Uncle Clyde's passing. You are all in our prayers. I know it is and will be hard, but with time will come healing. Be there for each other, thank the Lord for the time you had with Uncle Clyde, and that he no longer has to suffer. Fond memories never die. I'm so sorry but we can't make it over, but Mom, Dad, and Lisa will. We will be making a memorial donation in his name to the Hospice, because I know how much they do for patients and families. Take care.

“ Clyde was my first cousin. When he came to North Carolina to visit our Grandmother we would have the best time playing on the farm. As we grew Clyde came to visit less and less. However, he was loved by his North Carolina family. Praying for you as you say good bye.

“ I cannot believe you are gone from us, Clyde. I know your battle was hard. I did not wish for you to suffer long, but I was not ready for you to go. I still can hear your voice, see your impish smile, know what you would say about something. I will grieve for you because you were part of my life and family and you enriched my life and family with your goodness and unconditional love. You are where we cannot see, and physical health is not an issue for you now. You have been what I strive to be, someone who will always be remembered fondly by those who knew him.
