“ I learned a lot from Daniel, but one thing immediate in my memory, is that Life is better, when you're riding a bike! I think God created no one else, that loved to ride that much. His unique laugh, will not be forgotten. His stubbornness at times, was unmatched. If he felt like he could help someone, he would go to great lengths to make it happen. I thank God that I can say, "Daniel Melvin was my friend." He will be missed, prayers for all that were fortunate enough to still live close and spend time with him.

A lot of memories with Daniel with all of us kids riding in the back of Uncle Norman's pick up truck going to church functions. The good old days. Ride that bike up in heaven, Daniel, and crank that boom box up.

“ Daniel is one of the most kind hearted and gentle souls I have ever met. I will forever be grateful for all the help and assistance he offered to my mom while he lived next to her. He always watched out for her. Such a good hearted man. He always would come to his door and take the time to speak to me, just to say "Hey girl". He was a very special person and I will always hold a place in my heart. I will miss him dearly. Rest easy Daniel.
