“ This is such sad news! He made a lot of kids in Goldsboro smile as he drove for the Mill and later for Billie Smith. He always honked at us as kids as we played on the blacktop road by the tracks! He always had a smile and a story! Sorry for your loss and sad we can't pay our respects to a great man. He will live on in our memories and make us smile ! RIP Hardhead! Heaven is a better place and this old Earth will miss you!

You never saw an unclean pickup truck in Donnie's driveway. His trucks were always spotless clean and waxed, lol.

I could always tell when Donnie was out sitting on the porch, I couldn't see him but would hear all of the Ten Wheeler's blow their horn to him as they passed by.

RIP Donnie, you and your family are in my prayers!
