Donald will live forever in the many things he touched; the flowers, trees, birds, and ponds he nurtured, but most of all in the hearts of the family he loved and nurtured. He was a Pop-Pop to all of his extended family and made sure that everyone was taken care of. He was a considerate and loving person who left behind a legacy of memories such as homemade ice cream on your birthday, summer crab feasts and wonderful turkey dinners. He will be greatly missed but will live in our hearts forever. He was grateful to be able to pass away in the house he loved, in the presence of loved ones.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Keith Spiering; brother, David Spiering & sister, Marge Brown.

“ We will always cherish the memories we had in Mississippi, especially going to the antique stores and the lonely Rt. 11 we thought we would never get off of. That was a trip of a lifetime. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Mom-Mom and your extended family at this time and always.##imported-begin##Julie and Arthur Pechin##imported-end##
