“ Diane, Karen and Family,

Thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers. Although I didn't see your mother very often, I always remember her as being so sweet, happy and kind. I was thinking of her last week as I passed thru Greensboro on my way to visit family. I was so saddened to find her obituary in the paper upon my return.

Sincerely,

Dottie Stubbs Hopkins (Uncle Bill & Aunt Elsie's Daughter)

“ What a wonderful and sweet, dear friend! We got to know her more after she started coming to our J.O.Y. fellowship, and she has been such an encouragement and a joy herself to us all! Even after she moved to Dover, she would come back to Greensboro each month to be with us for J.O.Y. - and blessed every one of us. That beautiful smile and laugh of hers brightened up the day for all of us! We will miss her so much.
