“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for the loss of dutch. I knew him as a child but not as an adult. Our parents were all close friends. I watched him grow up some but lost contact a while ago. I am deeply sadden by his death. The last time i saw and spoke to him was at bruces funeral a few years ago. He was such a nice guy that just had a amazeing personality and filled with a good since of humor. You could see the light within him shineing out in our talks that night. My heart goes out to his family and my deepest condolences.

I am so very sorry!!! I loved Dutch as if he was my own son. He was the first to befriend my son, Jon when we moved to Caroline County. He was a loyal friend to us! So many laughs, so many memories!!!! My heart is truly broken! May God guide you all through this difficult time.

When Dutch was younger he was one of many of the children that came through my home daycare. He would sit on my front porch and tell me stories about himself and his brother Jessie. I always remembered your smile and the love you had for your family.

“ Dutch could literally talk to anybody with all the confidence in the world. He could walk into a room and make best friends with a complete stranger. He was so charming and entertaining. He lived as if he had no fear and nothing could faze him. I felt so safe with him no matter where we went or what we were doing. I felt like nothing could go wrong when we were together and he wouldn't let anything happen. When I would worry he would just say 'Its ok Pumpkin, things will work themselves out.' and I believed him and would feel so calm. ”

He was so talented and hardworking. I loved watching what he could create with his hands even if it was the perfect trench. He was proud of his work and wanted it to be perfect and done right. I was proud of him. I couldn't wait to start creating things with him and have him teach me everything he knows. I loved him so much.
