

Dwayne Allen Hutson

October 10, 1975 - July 31, 2022

Dwayne A. Hutson, of Marydel, MD was born on October 10, 1975, he passed away on July 31, 2022. He was 46.

I am writing my own obituary so take it as you want.

Dwayne Hutson was a hard worker and very blunt. Dwayne liked to work on cars, go to car shows and randomly bust a move with the love of my life, my soul mate, my sexy wife Niki. Zip ties and duct tape LOL !! Still keeping it real.

I like the beach and to hang out with real family and true friends.

I like random drives to the store and fishing spots with my daughter.

I used to like alcohol, but that was a big mistake. Live and Learn!

I have now accepted Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior; I try to do my best.

Dwayne is survived by his soulmate, the love of my life, Nicole Hutson, 3 sons and a daughter. Clayton Hutson of Federalsburg, MD, Joshua Dorrell (Jessica) of Henderson, MD, Jacob Dorrell (Carli) of Middletown, DE and Keirsten Cook of Marydel, MD.

Grandchildren, Melanie Dorrell, soon to be Peyton Dorrell and Scarlett Dorrell.

Father Jerry Hutson of Henderson, MD, Little older sister Dawn Hutson (Carol) of DE and lots of nieces and nephews.

Dwayne is predeceased in death by his mother, Mary Lou Faithful Morris.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

“ *You'll always be a legend in my eyes! The stories that I've heard :)
"Heros get remembered, but legends never die"
I'll always remember as the beast you were. Just wish I could have met you more. You were a wonderful husband, and an amazing father! Always did what needed be done for the family.
You can watch over grandma now, and keep her company for us.
Rest in peace uncle. Till the day we meet again. Till then ill be head bagging and blasting my metal at 15 for you!
I love you big guy!
You're nephew Keith! ❤️❤️*

“ I have nothing but the funniest of memories of you dude. Thank you for introducing me to all of my musical heros and keeping me laughing. I'll miss all the shares and corny jokes. You were the cool uncle by far supportive of my journey and amazing with my son. Wherever you are in whatever form may you be at peace rocking out with King Diamond and Ozzy and all your other favorites free of suffering and watching over us. I'll be writing you a song so keep your ears open my big Uncle Dwayne. Rest easy buddy. - Christopher

“ My brother I miss you so much, at times I can't believe that you are gone. My heart aches with sadness, but I know that you are at peace and no longer suffering. I started txting you the other day, but caught myself before I hit the send button. I'm going to miss those little things, our daily txts, sending selfie's back and forth, sitting and talking with you on my front porch. Those little simple things are what mattered to me. We sure had some fun times you and I and I will treasure and hold all of the memories close to me. You can keep our Mother company now, she always called you her baby. Until we meet again, just know that I love you so much and I will be thinking about you and missing you every single day.
Your little older sister, Dawn ❤️❤️❤️

“ I watched you grow up from an infant to the proud dad you had become. To see you follow in your dad's foot steps, always with a wrench in your hand and grease up to your elbows, is truely a Hutson trait. Then, as Clay got older, the world was really experiencing the trio of Hutson grease monkeys. I hope you know that your dad looked up to you whether it be for auto advise, friendship or the way you could scan the web. Yes, you were a hard worker. How you did your job in some of the most smoldering heat is beyond me. I'll miss your funny personality. You had a way to make a joke just to see a smile. Your heavy chuckle will always be heard in my head and the way you made sure you didn't miss a Mother's Day with me will forever be in my heart. I love you, Dwayne. Till we meet again ❤️ Mom Donna
