“ Gloria's kindness and generosity are prevalent in all she does. While I never met Elizabeth, she sure raised an incredible woman. Thoughts and prayers are with Gloria and her family.

“ I loved spending time with Betty, looking over her photos from Maurice's race car days to her dressing up for Halloween with the other lunch ladies at the high school. She introduced me to Hallmark Channel, and we would discuss the merits of the various handsome men in the romantic shows. We giggled together when we annoyed Gloria with our not-so-polite behavior (hey, gas happens!) and our slightly raunchy senses of humor. Betty loved telling me about her extended family, her son Maurice Jr., and her dogs, Blackie, Misty and Lady. She was proud of Gloria, and loved her deeply, along with Jim and Jacob, though she wasn't always able to show it. Her lovely great-granddaughter Skylar Rose brought great joy in the last year of Betty's life. I am not sure Betty realized that Skylar inherited not only her beauty but also a full share of the Britton/Shockley cleaning and tidying gene! :-) Rest in peace and fun, dear Betty.

Karen, thank you so much for all you did for mom and loving her. I am so blessed to have you as a sister from another mother, but I know mom loved you like a daughter.
