“ Susie and I met at Boaters World Dist. Center in Denton, where we both got jobs around the same time. We became good friends, and would car-pool together alot. Susie was so much fun to be around. -- funny and witty and almost always had a smile on her face. We always had stories to tell each other and confided in each other alot. We lost touch when I moved out of the area, but I still thought of her often, and would shoot a quick prayer up to the Lord that He would watch over her. I only found out yesterday that she had gone to be with Him. I think I'm still in shock alittle. Stanley, I am so sorry for your lloss. She will be sadly missed. Had I known, I surely would have been there to pay my respects. My prayers are with you and yours'. You will find strength in the Lord, as He will comfort you in your time of grief, if only you look to Him. With love and respect, Cyndi Ebling Lawson
