“ *To Randy, Susan and Sally,
We are so saddened for your loss for who we knew as "Auntie Pat".
I have so many wonderful memories ever since my childhood. We were so fortunate to have seen her when she came to N.H. to visit and stay with us. Seems like yesterday. We had a lot of laughs which was just like her. She really was a gentle spirit and will be sadly missed. God's peace to each one of you.
Love, Sharon & Bill*

“ *Our thoughts and prayers go out to all that knew Auntie Pat and how much she will be missed. As we look back all I can see is her smile and knowing how she loved to come and visit the family. We will always hold you dear to our heart and someday will meet again.

“ *Sally, Susan and Randy, Your mom was such a sweetheart of a lady. One of my favorite aunts. So many great childhood memories of your visits here and ours there. I wish that distance wasn't a factor on how often we'd see each other. Thinking of you all and wishing you Gods peace.

“ *Pat Dear, I miss you so much. God needed another angel to keep the loved ones that have entered heaven company, with your smile, gentle laugh and thoughtfulness to the folks you have met. I will always remember our camping days, card nights, and Friendly's.
Shopping! One of our many excursions; leaving the men to "people watch". I am sorry for the girls and Randy, they were very attentive to you and your needs, and I'm sure have memories of traveling back and forth to New Hampshire in their youth and might add later years. Randy, do you remember your Class Reunion from Portsmouth? I will never forget. Pat, part of me went with you, we will meet again, Love you, Marcia*

“ My father (Emily's brother), Andrew, called her "Patsy" but we (my sisters and I and my mother) called her "Emily." She was a fine Aunt, with a great spirit and great sense of humor. My father passed away in 2005. On behalf of my mother, my sisters, and myself, I want to express our sympathy and condolences to my cousins, and their families. We will miss Emily because of who she was and how she was and we mourn, too, that her passing weakens the link she provided to other family members like Grandmother Jackson (Emily's mom) who was a unique and generous lady from Washington,DC, who loved her children and grandchildren greatly and from whom Emily took many of the qualities that made up her warm and wonderful nature. (Grandmother's husband, our grandfather, died very young before any of us, other than myself (as the oldest grandchild) had much of a chance to know him and my chance was limited to the interactions between a grandfather and a toddler.) We (my sisters and I) were recently reminded of that link when were searching for information concerning my great uncle, by marriage, Fred Happel, whose design for the Social Security Card is the one still used today. That accomplishment by Uncle Fred was commemorated on Capitol Hill and Emily stood in for the family and Fred at the ceremony as reflected in the photos available online at SSA. We are thankful for having had the chance to know Emily and are thankful that her legacy lives on in her children, and their children, and in others whose lives she touched.

“ It's difficult to articulate how much of a void in this world Aunt Pat's passing has created. In my lifetime I never met a more real and down-to-earth person: soft spoken, a strong shoulder, a quiet resoluteness. She always knew when to make just the right suggestion or to just be quiet, listen, smile that gentle smile, and make you feel like a million bucks, even when you didn't deserve it. She was the most forgiving, patient and loving woman I ever knew, a terrific mother, and an inspiration as my favorite aunt. God sure knows how to pick 'em. And I wouldn't be a bit surprised if He is just as taken with her as I've always been.....'til we meet again, "Auntie Pat"...
