“ Hello there Mr. Scott, Connie, Cathy and Christine. I was reading the paper tonight (a few days late!) and was reading David Kelley's mom's obituary and looked over and saw your Mom's! I just wanted to let you know that I'm very sorry, though we do know she is at home with the Lord! I have such great memories of our times in Band, parades and trips with our Moms! I watched the video trying to figure out who everyone was! (it's been awhile hasn't it?) My Mom is also home with the Lord -one year ago today. We miss her a lot but are blessed to have Dad! You guys all take care and we will be praying for the Lord's comfort and strength for you. Vickie (Hobbs) Tribbitt

“ Ester was such a faithful friend when we were pastoring in Greensboro. Barry always was grateful for her applesauce cake. Her faithfulness to helping in the church was so appreciated. We will miss her prayers and cards for us. Ester and Ray's girls are a tribute to how living for the Lord leaves a legacy in your children. We are aying up treasures in Heaven to meet again and fellowship with forever. With our love and prayers for the family, Pastor Barry and Von Miller

“ I have been blessed to know Ester for only 8 years. The Lord brought me into her sphere of influence when my family & I joined the New Life Wesleyan Church. She was a constant light for Christ in all she did. She inspired, helped, encouraged and loved me always. I will miss my friend, but find solace that she is free from her earthly pains.
