Eva was born and resided in Baltimore, MD until she moved to the Eastern Shore in 1988. She worked as a hair stylist for most of her life, and worked for Dr. Ross Van Antwerp in Severna Park, MD and Holsinger & Higgins in Denton, MD, and then retired from Caroline Nursing Home in Denton, MD at the age of 62.

Although she retired from working, she never really stopped working for the Lord.

Throughout her life she ministered in many different capacities. Eva was a Bible teacher and minister to many, from toddlers to the elderly at Faith Tabernacle, Lifeway Church of God and Fish Locker Ministries.

She was even the Chaplin at Caroline Nursing Home, where she led Bible studies and individually ministered to residents with no family of their own.

Eva was a prayer warrior. She was always there for you when you needed her the most. Eva loved to praise the Lord and study the Word. If you were with her for any amount of time, you would catch her singing a hymn or worship song. She was truly the hands and feet of Jesus in
