“ To the entire family and friends of Francis my deepest sympathy as you are grieving for him. The picture of him riding his horse is beautiful. Francis and Rosemary hosted so many wonderful parties for their fellow horseback riding friends. Francis always had that million dollar smile. Rosemary you have been a wonderful caregiver for all of your family and especially to Francis. Please let others take care of you during this most difficult time. Francis is most likely leading others on a great trail ride and figuring out how to make everyone have a good time. Hold tight to all of your wonderful memories.

Sincerely,
Mary Brown
