“ Toby and I met in Munich, both visiting Bettina. Her parents were away but knew we were staying. On their return Toby and I were sent out for the day for the family to have time together and un block the toilet! Bettina's lovely mum gave us money to buy a hot hen! It took us several hours to realise she meant a chicken dinner! We toured Munich and ate the hot hen at the new Olympic stadium. Facebook allowed us to stay in touch since. Devoted husband, father and grandfather. True family man.
