

G Dever Hobbs

June 19, 1921 - February 16, 2012

G. Dever Hobbs, 90, born in Ridgely, MD son of Charles L. Hobbs and Inez Dever Hobbs, passed away quietly on February 16, 2012. He was born on Maryland's Eastern Shore and spent his youth in Baltimore. He graduated from Johns Hopkins University and received his Masters in Business Administration from Harvard Business School. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. His business career spanned more than 25 years in textile fibers sales and marketing. Mr. Hobbs first worked for E. I. DuPont de Nemours and Company in Wilmington, Delaware; Providence, Rhode Island and New York City. He then joined the Celanese Corporation where he worked in New York and Mexico City. He then held the position of Vice President of the Beaunit Corporation. Mr. Hobbs enjoyed a second career in professional tennis, directing the Pacific Southwest Tennis Tournament in Los Angeles, California. This he enjoyed immensely, since he was an avid tennis player all of his life, holding a national ranking and winning his last national tournament in 1970. He is survived by Betty C. Hobbs, a granddaughter, Lucy McKnight of Morgantown, West Virginia, his sister-in-law, Barbara W. Hobbs and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a daughter Helen Hobbs McKnight and Helen's mother Emma Hobbs and his brother Charles L. Hobbs.

“ Dear Dever's Family, We were saddened to read of Dever's passing in the "Star Democrat" newspaper. We enjoyed Dever's company very much while he lived in St. Michaels, and Reinhardt and Dever had many fun tennis matches. Dever was an amazing player and we enjoyed hearing about his tennis experiences, he was fun to be with and always cared about our children's tennis tournaments, too. It was a pleasure being his friend and many people in the Easton area remember him fondly. Our sympathies and prayers are with you, Sincerely, Karen and Reinhardt Sahmel###imported-begin###Reinhardt and Karen Sahmel###imported-end###
