

George S. Pierson

June 19, 1942 - August 23, 2023

Greenwood, DE – George Sylvan Pierson, 81, passed away on Wednesday, August 23, 2023 at his home with family. He was born on June 19, 1942, the son of Edgar Alexander Pierson and Addie Smith Pierson of Harrington, DE. Nelson Warren said it best, “Well driller by trade; Farmer at heart. He had a swagger and a sharp tongue along with the work ethic and knowledge to back it up. One of the greats, this world is darker without him.”

George was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Donald Lee Pierson, Sr. He is survived by his daughters, Vickie and Karen; 7 grandchildren (Auburn, Leslie, Connor, Will, Clayton, Coen, and Kierson); 4 great-grandchildren (Taylor, Hannah, Jordan, and Zoey); and his brother, Edgar Smith “Smitty” Pierson of Milford, DE. Many thanks go out to his nephews, Kenny and Doug Pierson, for all their help and support through this trying time.

George requested that there be no public service. Please remember him as he was in life.

I dated George all thru high school. He was always a gentleman and most kind. After high school I lost track of him. My father had him drill 1-2 wells for him. He was most satisfied. He did tell me that I would probably not recognize him after all the years that had gone by. I have a lot of wonderful memories of my high school years and George is part of most of them. RIP George.
