

George Elwood Walls

May 29, 2008

George Elwood Walls, 57

INGLESIDE, Md. - George Elwood Walls, of Ingleside, died Thursday, May 29, 2008, unexpectedly at his home. He was 57.

He was born on Jan. 25, 1951, in Dover, Del., to the late Elwood Walls Jr. and Helen Reed Walls of Ingleside.

George was a loving son, brother, husband, and father, and a good neighbor to all.

A lifelong resident of Ingleside, he graduated from Queen Anne's County High School in 1969 and was a U.S. Army veteran.

A master electrician by trade, George has worked at Chesapeake College for the last 16 years and completed his associates degree in 1998.

He was strong in his faith and was an active member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, serving as a board member, trustee, sound technician, and Sunday school teacher.

George had a lifetime love of covered bridges and trains (big and small) and was a member of the First State Model Railroad and Delmarva Train Clubs.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his wife of 11 years, Christy Andrews Walls; two daughters, Angela Marie and Erin Nicole Walls; and a sister and brother-in-law, Kay and Donald Nickolson, all of Ingleside.

Services will be 6 p.m. Monday in St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Ingleside, where friends may call one hour prior.

Burial will be at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Erin N. Walls Fund, payable to Erin W. Walls, UTMA, c/o Christy Walls, P.O. Box 1, Ingleside, MD 21644.

“ I was so sorry to hear of George's death. I have known him all of his life. George was very devoted to Angelia and I am sure he was devoted to Erin also.

My thoughts and prayers are with you Christy. I know this is a very hard time. Remember God is there for us in times like this.##imported-begin##Faye Williams (Bill Faust's Mom)##imported-end##

“ George and Greg had been friends since they were young, so in truth, they were more like brothers and so George was family to me as well. George was best man at our wedding, he was there when others were not; never judgemental. George will be missed terribly by our family and by Greg. So long old friend, we love you!##imported-begin##Greg and Robin McKinney##imported-end##

“ George was a very special person, and I feel privileged to have known him. He was a soft spoken man who entered virtually any conversation armed with a vast amount of knowledge. George was always quick to share his knowledge, too, whether it was on the subject of history, model railroading, electricity or anything else. He put the "master" in master electrician! I thoroughly enjoyed our times together, and I feel I'm a better man for having known George Walls.##imported-begin##Jim DiDonato##imported-end##

“ George was a Good man and a wonderful friend. He will be missed.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on the snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the mornings hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there; I did not die.?*###imported-begin##Terry

“ Christy, Angela, Erin, Mrs. Walls, Kay, Donald, Wendell, & Judy:
I would like you all to know that you have been in my prayers and will continue to be thought of during this unbelievable time of sadness. It just doesn't seem real for George not to be there at church. Life must go on, but you sometimes wonder what God has in store for all of us. St. Pauls loves all of you and I do, too. With deepest sympathy, Carol Whitby###imported-begin##Carol
