“ To my Dearest Fatherl,Dad i forgot and forget alot of things do to brain surgery but the day i was a tinzy winzy little girl and you told me you where leaving i never ever forgot.I went on for years wondering hoping praying crying my self to sleep at night for so many long years that you would come back into my life.About 6 years ago my daughter Kay found you i was so happy had tons of questions very mad at you for just walking away from me abd my other 3 siblings and just recently find out theres a Doug jr. So as time went on we lost each other again a short while i was goona give up again Kay found you i bring you to my house it may have been only 4 months the best 4 months of my life you may have did wrong i can forgive you i dont have to forget. You got to miss out me walking down the isle finishing school ralsing your grandchildren and just being in my life period you chose to miss all that dad ,But on June 10th at 11.59 pm as i held your hand and told you i loved you God chose to take you away again for good this time and make you one of his angels .DaddyEO (our joke) I love you so very much i hear from your other children your a hell of a guy you where well loved any where i took you.AGAIN I LOVE YOU DADDYEO TO THE MOON AND BACK RIP STUBBORN.
