This was a kind and gentle man. He always sent posts of people who needed prayers. He believed in God whole heartedly and shared his belief s. He will be missed here on earth,but God must have needed him in Heaven.

“ Gregory and Joanne were married on our farm on a beautiful day in 2014. They were a perfect pair. Sometimes life is not fair. Greg was always positive and fun to be around. It is hard to believe he is not with us anymore. He used to bring me root beer flavored beer which he introduced at one the the family events. Charles and I will miss him.

I could not and still can't believe you are gone we had just sent each other Christmas wishes the day before. When little Greg wrote me I was shocked to say the least. “ Nanny (Joanne - I can't help but call you Nanny), our hearts hurt with you. Greg was easy to welcome into the family, his smirky smiles, his funny comments, his shenanigans will certainly be missed! Life has forever been changed. We know that no words can ease the pain and loss that you are feeling right now. You are in our every thought and prayer. Grief is born of love. You both loved deeply. God bless. Love, The Lannings
