

Henry Otis Wooleyhand

July 11, 1938 - December 5, 2023

On the morning of December 5th, 2023, Henry O. Wooleyhand passed away peacefully at home in Ridgely, MD. Born on July 11th, 1938, Henry was the son of the late Otis and Florence Wooleyhand.

He attended the old Ridgely school and spent his youth working on the family farm. Later, he found his passion for carpentry and honed his skills under Mr. Fred Kunneman for many years. Eventually, he started his own business, building homes, remodeling, and more. He remained in the trade for over 60 years and was known as a true Master Carpenter who loved nothing more than building.

Henry had many joys in life, including fishing and crabbing with friends and family. He was blessed with a loving circle of friends, clients, and family who will miss him dearly.

Henry is survived by three brothers and five sisters. In addition, he is survived by his two sons from his first marriage, along with their respective families, and his two sons from his second marriage, John, and Paul, along with their wives. Henry's legacy is also carried on by his four grandsons and three great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by three brothers and one sister.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday December 12th from 10-11 am at Fleegle and Helfenbein Funeral Home in Greensboro Md. A service will be held on December 12th at 11 am at Fleegle and Helfenbein Funeral Home and the burial will follow in Greensboro Cemetery, located at 311 S. Main St. Greensboro Md 21639

“ RIP Dad. I will always and forever have nothing but good memories of you and your kindness. I now understand and except why and how thing came to be. Thank you for making things easy instead of difficult and hard to understand. God bless all who you helped and guided in your short time here with them.....Father, I come to You in my time of grief and sorrow, longing for the comfort and peace that only You can bring. I miss my loved one so deeply, but know that You are with me always. I ask for comfort and strength from within to get through this difficult time and for courage to face each day without them. I pray for the peace of knowing that they are safe in Your arms, free from all pain and suffering. Help me to trust that in time, I will be reunited with them one day. Guide me along my journey of healing as I try to make sense of my loss. Give me hope for the future, and help me to appreciate the beauty in each moment. Thank You for gifting me with Your love that carries me forward, even when I feel that I don't have the strength. In Jesus Name, amen. 🙏
