“ Our friendship with the Strannahans first began when we bought their Federalsburg home. Howard and Vic shared a common bond regarding their bypass surgeries. May the memories you shared with your parents bring you comfort along with the knowledge that they are together sharing the joys of eternal life.##imported-begin##Victor and Vera Rieck##imported-end##

“ Your mother and father were two of the loveliest people I have ever met. I have many fond memories of your dad, especially his war stories, their London travels, and his childhood "fights". Mike and Jackie, you must know how very proud they were of you and your families.

I know you will be lifted up everytime they are remembered by all who knew them.
