“ Mr. and Mrs. Davis were our "across the backyard" neighbors for many years. She and I had a lovely visit several years ago and we talked about the many changes that were happening in Ridgely. It was so wonderful to reminisce with her about the "good ol' days" of small-town living.

I pray that she is reunited in Heaven with her husband and son and that they live in blissful peace for all eternity.

“ My bright eyed peanut, I sure am going to miss you. You were such a gem. It was a both a privilege and a pleasure to help care for you these last couple of years.
