“ I have grown up around this wonderful woman. And she is as true as they come. She loved her flower beds and she wrked in them for hrs and when I was maybe 6-7 yrs old I picked all her beautiful flowers and sat on her front steps and I mixed her the prettiest mixture of her flowers ever.. I thought I was doing something nice for her but needless to say I broke her heart.. It's been almost 50yrs or so ago but I don't remember her ever yelling at me or being mean to me. I nvr realized that it was wrong bc ppl loved u when you picked them flowers or even a weed so I thought I was doing something special for her. She's been my neighbor forever and her son Will was her pride and joy. He's been by her side since his father and her husband died. She wrkd full time and she was a good mother and a great neighbor.. she will be missed by all.. I am happy she's back in her husband's arms and she's peaceful.. Much Love and Respect ❤️🙏
