

James Clarence Thompson Sr.

January 1, 1947 - January 31, 2025

James Clarence Thompson Sr., 78 of Greensboro MD died peacefully at his home on January 31, 2025.

James was born in Delmar, De on January 1, 1947, the son of James Edward Thompson and Maragret Jane Young (Hill). James grew up in West Denton and Graduated from North Caroline High School in 1966. He married his high school sweetheart, Florence (Liz) on June 15, 1968.

He was a member of The Greensboro Jaycee's and the Moose Lodge. He pursued a truck driving career for 60 years. Most knew him as "Honky Tonk," or "Lil Jim." He retired from Hollingsworth Trucking in July 2024. His interests included NASCAR, enjoying crabs during the summer, watching classic westerns, attending Ravens games, listening to live country music, and dancing the jitterbug. Above all, James cherished the moments spent with his wife, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 56 years, Florence (Liz) Elizabeth Thompson; a son, James C. Thompson Jr. (Amy) of Greenwood, DE; and a daughter, Tina M. Carroll (Nash) of Ridgely, MD. He leaves behind three grandchildren: Cody J. Carroll (Heather) of Denton, MD, Bailey E. Towers (Tommy) of Greensboro, MD, and Waylon A. Carroll of Ridgely, MD.

Additionally, he is survived by two great-grandchildren, Jace W. Towers and Addison R. Towers, along with several nieces and nephews.

A visitation is scheduled for Thursday, February 6, 2025, from 10 AM to 12 PM, followed by a service at Fleegle and Helfenbein Funeral Home in Greensboro, MD. After the service, interment will take place at Greensboro Cemetery.
