“ Jen was also left behind four fabulous boys who were her step children: Josh, Billy, Austin and Kevin Rainbolt. She loved them like her very own.

*They miss you very much, Jen. They were very torn up over the loss of you from their lives. Mom and I were privileged to talk to them at length over the last few days and you would be SO PROUD of what they learned from you and the values you have instilled in them. See, it worked! :) They went on about how you really listened to them and how you were always calm and the "voice of reason" amidst the chaos that comes with raising six children in a blended family.. They never doubted your love for them because you showed it every day. The boys even realize how difficult they made things sometimes after all they ARE boys- ;) and are thankful you loved them through it. I just thought you'd be happy to know that your legacy lives on in so many ways. Zach is handling this like the wonderful young man he is.....and Lacy is exhibiting just how much she is like her mother in heart.
They are being there for each other as well.

You've been a wonderful wife, mother, daughter, sister, cousin, niece and friend....we are all blessed that you have touched our lives. We will NEVER be the same as a result of your love and supportand now our lives will never be the same without you.

I love you, Jen and miss you more than I ever thought possible!!!! I know you are in our Father's hands- so rest, my dear friend until we meet again on those streets of gold.

God Bless your family during this time. May God wrap his arms around them and bring them peace and comfort. I'm sending all my love and prayers.

“ Jen is an absolutely wonderful person even in her passing. You know she was loved by all and how could you not love her with that big smile and joyful presence. I love her like a sister and my soul aches for her children parents and brother. Rest ashore Cousin Jen we will make sure they are all looked after. We love you and miss you deeply but we know you are looking down on us and will watch over us from heaven above. Hugs kisses and love to you always. Tiff and Tony Clough and Family

“ A little something for Jen

The Day You Left Us.

The day you left us was heartbreak and sorrow.

The day you left us we saw no tomorrow.

The day you left us we didn't understand.

The day you left us God had you by the hand.

The day you left us your family came together.

The day you left us we remember you forever.

Aunt Carolyn, Uncle Ken Casey Lacey Zack I want to list everyone who has been affected by Jens death but there probably is a limit as to how much I can write so to everyone who is affected by my cousins death I just want to say that we were all fortunate to have Jen in our life some had more time with her than others but I am blessed to have had my time with her and miss her so very much. I am not good with my words but I just want you to know my heart is there with you all.

I love you all from the bottom of my heart

Went to school with 'Jen' at North Caroline High, and she was liked by all who knew her. She would do anything for anyone. I send my prayers and thoughts to "Jens" family and wish you the best. Just remember, that jen is looking down on us from heaven and though she is gone, she will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Jen... Kevin Schmitt
