“ I am deeply saddened by the sudden and tragic loss of my friend. I pray that the Good Lord will comfort his mourning family and friends.

Jeremy "the Miah (Jeremiah)" was a very likeable guy with many skills and abilities. He was deeply introspective, engaging, and articulate. He was a fierce competitor who respected his opponents, and won or lost with grace and integrity. He endured many challenges, and he made no excuses. He's given me many fond memories; and I'm a better person for having known him. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Bob Fritz##imported-end##

“ Jeff,

My heart goes out to you and your family. i know how much you loved your brother. Please remember that you don't have to go thru this alone. I am right here no matter what time of day or night if you need someone to talk to or lean on. Most of all God is with you every step of the way, holding you and your family hands thru this trying time.

Love you Jeff###imported-begin##Robin Rankins (Co-Worker)###imported-end##
