“ My prayers go out to the family of their loss. Jerry was a hard-working man. he was always doing something. I remember the times we all went crabbing and fishing and he taught me how to clam even if I didn't eat them. He worked with my X husband Paul Franklin Perry Jr for years. We all got into going to horse racing He would help anyone if he could. He will be missed by all that knew him. He was a good man.
