“ *I am so sorry to hear of your loss. When I have experienced the loss of a loved one, I have found great comfort in the words of Jesus at John 11:11, where he likens death to being asleep, and at John 5:28,29 - "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." “ I love my uncle John. We were partners in crime. He would send for 100$ worth of candy. Still don't know where he put it all. I lovingly nick named him the candy man. The man could eat 3 full meals a day and a Walmart bag full of junk food and chocolate. Love you. RIP Uncle John. Always in my memories Kimberley McKnight-Blair.

“ Sandy and Matt sorry for your loss. I remember John from when I was a little younger we grew up in the area of 14th & Crosby Sts. in Chester, Pa. we both move I didn't see him again until later in life and met at the tee pee of Indian Acres. John always a nice person to me, He always smile when I saw him. Sandy, something you will always remember dad (aka John Mac) is one of God's Angels now, and he just got his wings, so he will be following you to you meet again. Times will be tough without him, but you have forgot he is a angel now. He will be with you forever, if you need him for anything speak to him he will always hear you, see he will be in your heart for ever. God Bless, my friend Johnny Mac.

Your Friend Forever
