“ Stephanie, John didn't hesitate to acknowledge me as his "Aunt Shunga". He was always very pleasant and kind and he truly and genuinely loved you and his children! Yes, he will be missed but as you stated in one of your many posts on FB, he is no longer suffering! My heart is heavy for you at this time but I can testify that "Weeping may endure for a night but truly my niece joy, unspeakable joy will come in the morning"! Let the voice of God thru His Word minister to you, direct and lead you but most of all....KEEP you. Love you much...

“ The time we all spent together, we will treasure forever. Sorry we weren't there to tell you goodbye. Sad that we have missed out on so many years together. But again, we will treasure the time we did have. Wish we could be there now, to say our goodbyes, and be there for Steph and the kids. You are in our thoughts here in New Orleans.

“ Steph, I am praying for God's comfort over and through you and the boys. John fought a long fight and ran a long race but now he gets to rest in eternal paradise with our King. Hold tight to the loving memories you have of him and keep him alive through your children. Stay strong and remember that weeping only endures for a night but joy, unspeakable joy, comes in the morning.

*At this time of sorrow, may these truths sustain you...
John will always be as close as a memory, and the God of all comfort will always be as close as a prayer.*

May your family and friends comfort you, may your faith uphold you, and may your loving memories heal your heart,

With heartfelt sympathy,

Cousin, Julia (Jubee) Burruss
