“ This is just crazy. Me and Jon were best friends in Elementary School...I looked him up seriously on Saturday the 11th because I hadn't talked to him since high school. I remember hanging out with him at Barbara's house, playing in the creek or running his moped into his aunt and uncles fence...well Jon....Its a crazy world we live in that sometimes takes turns that we don't fully understand. Wish Barbara, Mimi and Jennifer the best through this.

“ I did not know Jonathan that well except that I he is my son in law's best friend and the love of Lindsay's life! I want to say that I know he loved Lindsay with his whole heart! Jonathan was a real man! Most men would have walked away but he stayed and loved Lindsay that much more, giving of himself to her and loving her through the most difficult time of their lives.

Lindsay I know you are broken hearted and you will miss Jonathan so much that you will feel you cannot make it without him, so my prayer's are the Holy Spirit will comfort you and fill you with great peace! Also, for Jonathan's mother and all of his family I pray the same peace from the Holy Spirit. May God bless all of you an rest in His great love.

Love,
Debra

“ So hard to even imagine, my heart goes out to Barbara, Jennifer and Melissa and extended family. I met Jonathan when I moved next door to him and his family when he was a small blond curly headed boy. I pray that his friends and family find comfort in this very difficult time.
