This world has lost a wonderful man. He sang like an angel and spoke as a gentleman. We enjoyed his music and his conversation. May he rest in peace now that he is free of pain and may God bless and keep his loved ones. George Towers, Jr. and wife, Sharon Clendaniel

“ *Lena and Family,
You had a great guy for many years, thank God for that. I wish you could have had many more. We know he is with God playing in the Angel Band. After we got together at music he kept me up to dat on the family. Wonderful human being and a great picker.
Many great memories of you and your family with us in Templeville. We will always think of you and your family as part of us. You will be in our prayers. Bill & helen Knotts*

All the McNeil boys help keep me from getting into too much trouble when I was growing up. Josh was always a great guy, fun to be around, and straight as an arrow. Men like Josh will always be missed, because we just can't replace them. My sympathy and prayers to the family.
