“ I will choose to remember Karl from our days on Hemlock Street, a group of kids happily playing our childhood games, Karl quietly in the background as he was the only male with all of us. He is now free and happily running once again, reunited with his Dad and those gone before him. Till we are all reunited again in God's world...I

“ Want to send our thoughts and prayers to his family. He was a very special guy. He had a lot of things that went against him at such a young age, but he never seemed to let it get him down. Always had lots of fun when ever we all got together. I will never forget the first time I met Karl we talked n talked and he became a good friend from that moment on. One night we were all sitting down high times, that was a dirt rd. in Goldsboro where we all used to hang out. And he told us that one of these days a light was going to shine down and pick him up and carry him away and when he got back he would be better. Well Karl knew that one day it would happen, that light came and picked him up and brought him to a place where everything be better. And I am sure heaven is a beautiful place. And he was wonderful person. R.I.P. Karl and know that you will be missed
