“ Larry was one of a kind. He worked for Hardesty's for several years and was a great backhoe operator. Just saw him a month or so ago and he was still the same Larry. He will be missed. RIP.

“ My Uncle Larry was a very loving and big hearted man who never missed an opportunity to cut up and he'd laugh the loudest(and he could laugh loud!!). For instance, he loved to ask a pregnant woman if she knew "how that happened" (pointing to her obvious huge pregnant belly). He loved good food and he loved dogs very much. He was the hardest worker I've known outside Dennis(haha) He will always bring cherished memories and being a part of my family was a gift we all loved.

Ps. I will always love you, "Warry".
