“ I first met Veenie at Arby's about 10 years ago, or, more realistically, she met me. I'd been going there to read and relax several times a week. But it wasn't long before she would come to my table and began talking with me. My first impression of her was that she was one of the kindest and gentlest people I'd ever met--and I wasn't wrong. Each day after our first meeting she would greet me with a "Hi dear" and a kiss on the cheek. It wasn't long before she, her friend Billie, and I would often sit together and talk about everything imaginable. It makes me happy knowing that I was fortunate enough to have known such a wonderful person. I'm so sorry for your loss but I know that you'll find comfort in knowing that she is in a better place.

“ I will miss your smile that you always had, no matter what was going on. I never knew your real name, because from the first day I met you I called you mom. You are one of the nices and sweetest ladies that I have met. I will always remember our several lunches where you remind the people that you wanted your fries extra crispy, and how you had to share them other people. And let's not forget your Carmels that you loved. Now you are in a better place and you are with other love ones that has passes before you. I hope to see you again when it is my time. Love you mom, and God Bless you.
