Just no words to truly express my thoughts. I just have so many memories of the bubbly fun person that would come across the field with Angie and Nathan to play at the campsite. She called me Aunt Gail . She was such a special child that grew into a wonderful woman and mother. May God give you strength and wrap his arms around you.

Now we know you look down and watch over us, probably laugh at some of the things we do. You were taken way too soon, but I guess God needed you. Fly high girl and know you will be missed by so many.
