

Leverne Bledsoe

November 2, 1936 - June 14, 2016

Leverne Bledsoe departed this life peacefully on June 14, 2016 at Dorchester General Hospital in Cambridge, MD. She was born November 1, 1936 to the late Curtis E. Bledsoe and Mary H. Bledsoe in Milan, TN.

In addition to her parents, six sisters and one brother preceded her in death: Audra Mae Bledsoe, Virgie Lee Williams, Idona Scofield, Lillian Mae Bledsoe, Josephine Flamer, Mildred Rhodes and William James Bledsoe.

Leverne accepted Christ at an early age at New Hope Missionary Baptist church, founded by her parents.

Although she was not afforded an early formal education due to the status of the times, she was able to acquire functional lifelong skills despite her situation.

Ms. Bledsoe lived in a group home and attended Pleasant Day Adult Day Care Center in Dorchester County where she made many relationships and participated in the many various activities.

Leverne had a good memory and she loved her family, often inquiring about them by name. She easily and frequently made friends and acquaintances and was well-liked by them.

She looked forward to her birthdays and Christmas. With every visit she would ask "what are you getting me for my birthday and do you have a dollar?" So on every visit, we knew to take gifts and money. She is survived by her sister Thelma Harris and a host of nieces and nephews.

A funeral service for Ms. Bledsoe will be held on Friday, June 24, 2016 at 11 am in the Fleegle & Helfenbein Funeral Home, Greensboro. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service. Burial will follow in the Spring Grove Cemetery, Denton.
