

Linda Jo Epperly Glover

January 30, 1941 - August 24, 2018

Linda Jo Epperly Glover, 77, of Ridgely, MD passed away on Friday, August 24, 2018 at University Medical Center in Easton. She was born on January 30, 1941 in Hartford, Connecticut to the late William and Verese White Epperly. Linda was a Social Worker for the state of Maryland. She also helped her husband Jimmy run his crabbing business from their home in Ridgely. Throughout her life Linda volunteered in many ways including serving on the Ridgely Town Council for several terms. Mrs. Glover worked for the Caroline County Board of Education at North Caroline High School where she worked with special needs students. She is survived by her husband, James "Jimmy" Glover, Jr., brother, William Epperly, Jr. of California and 3 nephews. A memorial fund has been set up in Linda's name to support children with special needs that she cared for so much. Checks should be made payable to North Caroline High School at 10990 River Road, Ridgely, Maryland 21660; with the memo line stated: Linda Jo Epperly-Glover Memorial Fund. The visitation for Linda will be held 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM Wednesday, August 29th, 2018 at Fleegle & Helfenbein Funeral Home, 106 W. Sunset Ave., Greensboro. The funeral services will be held 2:00 PM Thursday, August 30th, at the funeral home, with burial following the service in the Ridgely Cemetery.
