

Lottie L. Bishop

March 29, 1919 - September 19, 2012

Lottie L. Bishop

Lottie Bishop, age 93, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, September 19th, 2012 at her daughter's home surrounded by her family.

Lottie was born on March 29th, 1919 in Greensboro, Maryland to the late Howard and Sally Josephine Usilton. She attended Greensboro High School, where she graduated in 1936. In 1941, Lottie married Clifford Edward Bishop and moved to Wilmington, Delaware shortly thereafter.

Lottie was an incredibly hard-worker her entire life, and enjoyed a long and successful career in real estate. She always kept busy with different adventures, and loved to challenge herself when it came to learning and trying new things. Lottie was a talented painter, a wonderful cook, an avid driver, and an overall go-getter. Most importantly, she was an amazing wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, great aunt, and great-great aunt.

Lottie will forever be remembered as such a loving person with the biggest heart. Her selflessness was unparalleled, and her wonderful personality and bright smile was cherished by all. She loved deeply, and was deeply loved.

Lottie is survived by her daughter Sally Hoosier and husband Robert, and by her son Donald Bishop and wife Mary. She is also survived by her granddaughter Kristen McCurdy and husband John, grandson Owen Bishop and wife Tiffany, grandson Trevor Bishop and wife Jessica, as well as by two great-grandchildren, Grace and Sterling Bishop.

A Graveside service will be held at the Greensboro Cemetery in Greensboro,

Maryland on Saturday, September 22nd, at 11am. Condolences may be sent to family at www.fleegleandhelfenbein.com.

“ Lottie and my mother (Betty Jones Pippin) were the best of friends, she attended my parents 50th Anniversary party at my home in 1992. So Sorry to hear of her passing, she was the same age as my father (William Pippin). My Mom passed away 12 years ago and my Dad 9 years ago. Patty Pippin Brelia

“ Lottie, forever known to us as precious Mom-Mom, was the best grandmother in the world. She was so much more than just a grandmother to me. Words will never be able to capture what she meant to me and how deep our love was. We were truly inseparable, and we always will be. Her love and memory are forever inside of us. We will cherish her always...We love you so very much Mom-Mom.
